Goya. Light and Shadow

16th March-24th June 2012
at CaixaForum

The exhibition brings together 100 paintings, drawings and prints to provide a chronological overview of the work of this artistic genius. The wide range of works selected are set out in independent sections that tell short visual stories analysing the main themes the artist worked on throughout his life. The exhibition is being staged as part of the collaboration agreement between "La Caixa" Community Projects and the Prado Museum, and includes some of Goya's best-loved masterpieces such as The Clothed Maja, The Parasol and Witches' Flight. These works reflect the social background to Goya's life and times, with royalty, the privileged classes, his intellectual friends and the people taking centre stage.

Apartment Museum 1/11 (Casa Bloc)

From 12th March 2012

Apartment 1/11 at the Casa Bloc (1932-1939) housing complex has been converted into a museum run by Disseny Hub Barcelona. Located in Barcelona's Sant Andreu district, the apartment has been restored to its original appearance and is open to visitors. The Casa Bloc is a key example of social housing for workers. It was designed by the architects Josep Lluís Sert, Josep Torres Clavé and Joan Baptista Subirana, who were members of the GATCPAC (Group of Catalan Architects and Technicians for the Progress of Contemporary Architecture) and was built in the 1930s, during the 2nd Spanish Republic.

The opening of this apartment museum will contribute to the recognition of the work of these architects and their innovative approach, which was ahead of its time. Today, the Casa Bloc is considered a unique example of rationalist architecture in Barcelona. In 1992, the Catalan government made the complex a listed cultural landmark.
