Barcelona uncovered routes

We invite you to discover Barcelona on these city routes that feature a wealth of things to see and do. To help you plan your visit, we've provided information about how long it takes to get there by public transport and on foot.

Begin your route here:

Mirador de Colom
Pl. Portal de la Pau, s/n.

Moll de Barcelona → Mirador Colom – 10'

The Columbus Monument opened in 1888 at the time of the Universal Exhibition. Ride the lift inside the column to the viewing gallery at the top, 60 m above the city, which boasts bird's eye views of Barcelona.
There is a tourist information point inside the monument.

Montjuïc, the park of culture, the Olympic legacy and nature

Climb up to Parc de Montjuïc and enjoy superlative panoramic views of the port, the sea and the city from the Mirador de l'Alcalde and Montjuïc Castle. Visit three of the city's unmissable museums (MNAC, Fundació Miró and CaixaForum), take a stroll and discover the sports venues built for the 1992 Olympic Games.

Time to complete the route: 1h39

1 CaixaForum
Av. de Francesc Ferrer i Guàrdia, 6-8
https://caixaforum.org/

Drassanes → Pl Espanya (L1) – 6' + 6'

Housed in the former Casaramona textile mill, a jewel of industrial modernista architecture designed by Josep Puig i Cadafalch, it hosts exhibitions of ancient, modern and contemporary art, as well as immersive experiences.

2 Pavelló Mies van der Rohe
Av. de Francesc Ferrer i Guàrdia, 7

2'

Designed by Ludwig Mies van der Rohe, this glass, steel and marble building represented Germany at the 1929 Barcelona International Exhibition and houses Georg Kolbe's beautiful sculpture Dawn.

3 Poble Espanyol
Av. de Francesc Ferrer i Guàrdia, 13
https://poble-espanyol.com/

9'

Built in 1929 for the International Exhibition, it is a village in its own right featuring full-size replicas of 117 buildings from the different regions of Spain. Architecture, contemporary art, shops, food and traditions in beautiful surroundings.

4 Museu Nacional d'Art de Catalunya
Palau Nacional. Parc de Montjuïc
https://www.museunacional.cat/ca

6'

This museum takes you on an uninterrupted journey through a thousand years of Catalan art, from the 10th to the 20th centuries. It also hosts a rich and varied programme of temporary exhibitions.

5 Anella Olímpica

12'

The Olympic Ring was the focal point of the 1992 Olympic Games. It is home to Arata Izosaki's sports arena, the Palau Sant Jordi, Santiago Calatrava's telecommunications tower, and the Estadi Lluís Companys, which will be the home ground for FC Barcelona during the 2023-24 season. Nearby, you'll find the Museu Olímpic i de l'Esport Joan Antoni Samaranch.

6 Fundació Joan Miró
Parc de Montjuïc s/n
https://www.fmirobcn.org/es/

18' or 150 – 14'

The collection features more than 14,000 works that will take you on a journey through the artist's life and work, revealing the many different techniques he used during his career.

7 Jardí Botànic
Doctor Font i Quer, 2
https://bit.ly/43r9EAc

150 – 13' or 12'

The garden brings together plants from around the world that have adapted to all the regions on the planet with a Mediterranean climate.

8 Castell de Montjuïc
Ctra. de Montjuïc, 66

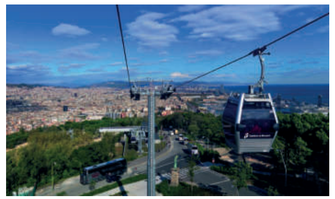

150 – 15'

Perched on a high vantage point overlooking the port 173 metres below, Montjuïc Castle is a great place to enjoy fabulous views of the city.

9 Telefèric de Montjuïc
https://www.telefericdemontjuic.cat/en

5'

Enjoy the exceptional views and relax as you ride above the treetops. The cabins are fully accessible for reduced-mobility passengers. The cable car connects with the Montjuïc funicular.

10 Piscines Municipals de Montjuïc
Av. Miramar, 31

2'

The pools were used for the diving competitions during the 1992 Olympics and boast spectacular views of the city.

11 Funicular de Montjuïc
https://bit.ly/3oSzMFg

7'

It connects Parc de Montjuïc with the Paral·lel metro station (lines L2 and L3).
→ Paral·lel – Drassanes (L3) - 15'

22@, the creativity and innovation district

This area brings together Barcelona's agricultural and industrial past and its future as a city that is embracing modernity by transforming its neighbourhoods, opening up the waterfront and building iconic contemporary architectural landmarks. Once known as the Catalan Manchester, the district has preserved its rich industrial heritage and is now home to the 22@ creativity and innovation district: the old mills and factories have been turned into flats, new financial and technology hubs, and art and design centres and schools.

Time to complete the route: 1h46

1 Vila Olímpica

Les Drassanes → Trelawny/Av. Litoral (D20) + 8' – 37'

It was built to house the athletes competing in the 1992 Olympic Games.
The Port Olímpic, with its imposing twin towers and Frank Gehry's Fish sculpture, was built to host the sailing competitions during the games. It is now a window on the sea where you can watch and take part in water sports.

2 Palo Alto
Pellaires, 30
https://www.paloalto.barcelona/

Pg. Marítim → Bac de Roda/Pg.Taulat (V27) + 2' – 25'

Palo Alto is a late 19th-century factory complex dedicated to creativity, design, architecture, painting, photography, sculpture and other disciplines. It opened in 1989.

3 Museu Can Framis
Roc Boronat, 116-126
https://www.fundaciovilacasas.com

Fluvià-Père IV (T4) - 16' + 7' or 22'

A late 18th-century former textile mill repurposed as a cultural centre that currently displays the Fundació Vila Casas paintings collection.

4 Parc del Forum
Pl. del Fòrum, 1

Ca l'Aranyó → Port Fòrum (T4) – 20' or Llacuna → Els Maresme/Fòrum – 22'

A huge seafront esplanade that hosts all kinds of events. Nearby, you can visit the modern Parc Diagonal Mar. A number of buildings and skyscrapers showcase the city's most modern architecture. They include the Centre de Convencions Internacional de Barcelona, and the iconic blue triangular block of the Fòrum building, which is home to the Museu de Ciències Naturals.

5 Mirador Torre Glories
Av. Diagonal, 209
https://www.miradortorreglories.com/en/

Port Fòrum → Ca l'Aranyó (T4) – 17' + 3'

This iconic observation deck, designed by Jean Nouvel, invites you to see Barcelona 125 m above the ground and immerse yourself in a sensory experience that brings together art, science and technology. It also features artist Tomás Saraceno's permanent walk-through installation Cloud Cities Barcelona.

6 Disseny Hub Barcelona (DHUB)
Pl. de les Glòries Catalanes, 37
https://ajuntament.barcelona.cat/museudeldisseny/en

3'

A vast showcase that brings together the collections of decorative arts, ceramics, textiles, clothing and graphic design formerly housed in separate museums. It is located inside the DHUB, a centre that promotes the city's design and creative industries.

You can hire a bike to explore the entire coastline and visit the 4.5 km of beaches.

Glòries → Catalunya (L1) + Catalunya → Drassanes (L3) – 11'

Modernisme, nature and the rural past: Horta, Guinardó, Nou Barris

Horta-Guinardó is known for its abundance of green spaces. The highest points in the area boast fantastic viewing points overlooking the city. The district is home to the Vall d'Hebron neighbourhood where some of the main sports venues for the 1992 Olympics were built. Nou Barris has a great choice of parks, including the modern Parc Central de Nou Barris.

Time to complete the route: 3h10

1 Sant Pau Recinte Modernista
Sant Antoni Maria Claret, 167
https://santpaubarcelona.org/

Drassanes → Diagonal (L3) + Diagonal → Sant Pau/Dos de Maig (L5) – 13' + 4'

This former hospital complex, designed by Lluís Domènech i Montaner, is one of the most important art nouveau sites in the world and one of the finest examples of its Catalan offshoot modernisme.

— Velòdrom d'Horta - Jardins de Marià Cañardo

4 Parc del Laberint
https://bit.ly/3oQkyk5

3'

Barcelona's oldest park and a magnificent example of an 18th-century neo-classical garden. It takes its name from its central feature: the cypress maze.

5 Mirador de la Torre del Baró
Ctra. Alta de les Roquetes, 309

Mundet → Roquetes (L3) – 27'

It boasts wonderful views of Barcelona and its surrounding area. Building work on a hotel was begun on the site during the first decade of the 20th century, but it was never completed.

Roquetes → Drassanes (L3) – 24'

The city at your feet and the essence of a village: Tibidabo, Sarrià-Sant Gervasi

The district of Sarrià-Sant Gervasi stands at the foot of the Collserola ridge, the city's biggest "green lung". Tibidabo is the highest point on Collserola and boasts spectacular views of Barcelona and the sea. The Tibidabo funicular will take you to Plaça del Tibidabo at the top.

Time to complete the route: 3h18

1 CosmoCaixa
Isaac Newton, 26
https://cosmocaixa.org/

Drassanes → Catalunya (L3) + Pl. Catalunya → Tibidabo (L7) – 19'+ 8'

A museum designed to stimulate visitors' knowledge and opinion of science. A vast public plaza boasts views of the city.

2 Temple Expiatori del Sagrat Cor
Pl. del Tibidabo, s/n

195 - 7' + - 10'

The basilica of the Sagrat Cor perches on top of Tibidabo. A lift takes visitors to the viewing point, 539 m above sea level, which boasts breathtaking views of the city.

3 Parc d'Atraccions del Tibidabo
Pl. del Tibidabo, 3-4
https://www.tibidabo.ca/en

With a history dating back more than 120 years, the amusement park offers a magical experience with iconic rides and attractions and the best views of the city.

4 Torre de Collserola – temporarily closed
Ctra. de Vallvidrera al Tibidabo, s/n
https://www.tibidabo.cat/en/collserolatower

13'

Norman Foster's 288-metre-tall telecommunications tower was built for the 1992 Olympics. A panoramic lift takes visitors to the viewing platform at the top, which stands 560 m above sea level.

Sarrià-Sant Gervasi
With its lanes, tiny squares and old houses, the centre of the neighbourhood of Sarrià retains its old village charm. The main street, Carrer Major de Sarrià, has a great choice of delightful, traditional shops.
Sant Gervasi is a residential neighbourhood, which also offers a great choice of shops and green areas like Turó Park and Parc de Monterols.

Torre de Collserola → Funicular del Tibidabo – 13'
Funicular Pl del Tibidabo → Plaça Doctor Andreu – 10'
Pl Doctor Andreu → 196 Carles Riba stop → Josep Maria Lladó – 3'
Carles Riba stop → Torre Bellesguard – 5'

5 Torre Bellesguard
Bellesguard, 20
https://bellesguardgaudi.com/

Still partly inhabited, this manor house was built by Antoni Gaudí between 1900 and 1909. The building blends the Gothic and modernista styles with a simplicity of line seldom found in Gaudí's buildings.

6 Col·legi de les Teresianes
Ganduxer, 95-105
https://bit.ly/3NJ1xzX

16'

A convent school housed in an elegant, understated building designed by Gaudí.
